CLIF Notes: A Curriculum for Families and Small Groups

This comprehensive UU curriculum is engaging and easy to implement. It is designed for use by small, mixed-age groups of children, but can be adapted for different age levels. CLIF Notes contains a session for each week including opening and closing words, centering, activities, discussion topics and more. Each year of the curriculum develops a theme, and the 2013-2014 edition centers on Ritual and Religious Practice.

RE Index of Resources

This searchable index will take you to hundreds of CLF religious education resources available on the Web. Search by age, topic or more to find curriculum ideas, Web links, craft ideas, columns from Quest and much more.

KidTalk Web page for kids

With links to activities and information about holidays around the world, featured people from UU history, social justice projects, spiritual practices, ways to practice our principles and a forum for kids to ask questions on religious topics, each month KidTalk provides a way for kids to connect to UUism, and for parents and religious educators to glean great ideas for religious education.

REsources for Living

Each month CLF minister for lifespan learning, the Rev. Dr. Lynn Ungar, writes a column inviting kids (and grown-ups) to reflect on matters from how to celebrate holidays to what it means to be a Unitarian Universalist.
